

African American Prevention Intervention Network SANKOFA FACT SHEET

November 2001

No. 2A

The African American Prevention Intervention Network (APIN) has an array of consultants who have expertise in the social and behavioral sciences. Consultants provide assistance in the following areas:

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE

Intervention Adaptation/Replication

Population Based Needs Assessment

Social Marketing

PROGRAM EVALUATION

HIV Prevention Intervention Effectiveness

Consultants are a vital component of a local resource network operated regionally by APIN coalition members. Prevention Intervention Centers (PICs) utilize consultants to provide technical services and consultation to community-based organizations.

Consultants are available to assist you in the four regions of the United States. If you reside in one of these states or territories, please contact a Prevention Intervention Center (PIC) near you.
